

November 1, 2023

HCGA

2023 HCGA H-E-B Scholarship Winners

On behalf of the HCGA scholarship committee, it is my pleasure to announce the following seven (7) students as the recipients of the HCGA Scholarship for the 2023 academic year. This scholarship was made possible through the generosity of H-E-B and friends of HCGA.

- Clarridge, Sarah – Senior at Seven Lakes H.S.
- Gallaspy, Sabrina - Senior at Klein Oak H.S
- Huang, Xiwen – Senior at Travis H.S.
- Wang, David – Junior at Seven Lakes H.S.
- Wang, Helena - Senior at Bellaire H.S.
- You, Aaron – Senior at Austin H.S.
- Zheng, Irene - Senior at Bellaire H.S.

The principal purpose of this scholarship program is to offer financial support to current junior and senior high school students and to encourage them contribute to the diversity of the community and achieve academic excellence. The total distribution for the 2023 academic year is $10,500. Each individual recipient will be awarded $1,500. Scholarship awards may be applied toward tuition, fees, field camp, or other costs directly related to high school and / or undergraduate study.

The Scholarship Committee, comprised of officers and members of HCGA, have made the final selection of students based on their review of the application information including community service record, academic achievement, leadership, and recommendation letters. All winners have demonstrated their outstanding community services and academic achievements as well as their potential to continue contribution to the diversity of Metro Houston community.

Congratulations to the HCGA 2023 Scholarship Winners. We encourage all of you to continue striving for excellence and wish you a bright and prosperous future.

Truly yours,

Jim Yu

Jim Yu, President of HCGA
